DISABILITY BUSINESS MEMBER APPLICATION

To be considered for Disability Business Membership, a business must fully complete this Application. If you have any questions regarding your business’ eligibility for Disability Business Membership or regarding this Application, please contact us at info@disablitychamber.org.

To qualify for Disability Business Membership, your business must be a Disability Business. The final determination of qualification is made by the Chamber’s Board of Directors (or the membership committee, if such a committee has been appointed), in its sole discretion. The Board of Directors may request additional information in its sole discretion. The following definition of Disability Business is in accordance with the Chamber’s Bylaws:

“Disability Business” means a business (whether for profit or not-for-profit) that is controlled by one or more persons who have a disability and/or are direct caregivers of a person who has a disability.

(a) The term “controlled” means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a company or a division of a company, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

(b) The term “disability” has the definition provided in the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (the “ADA”). Pursuant to the ADA, the term disability means, with respect to an individual,

1. a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of the major life activities of such individual;
2. a record of such an impairment; or
3. being regarded as having such an impairment.

(c) The term “direct caregiver” means a parent or guardian of one or more individuals with a disability; provided that such parent or guardian is the primary caregiver for such individuals.

There are no membership fees for Disability Business Members.
